

Urban Horticulture Project
Promoting greener and healthier communities

Mission Statement: We work with urban communities across the Pacific Northwest to establish and cultivate sustainable, productive community gardens and orchards to provide local families with fresh, organic produce. We organize community workshops on horticulture, food preservation, and more. Our organization also works to promote both functional and ornamental urban greenspaces.

